JOHN FORBES HANCOCK'S term of office has been for a brief period acted as Colonial Secretary, but save when on one occasion in 1881 he was for a few months Acting Colonial Treasurer this has been Mr. DEANE'S only experience since he was appointed to the office. Mr. LITZEN, on the other hand, has at one time or another filled posts in nearly all the public departments, and is familiar with their workings. But a great deal depends upon whether the Colonial Office have an urgent unclassified claimant for promotion from another Colony clamouring for a long deferred appointment. In any case, however, the post is not likely to remain vacant since the importance of its being filled is well recognised in Downing Street.

We are requested to state that there will be no concert at the Sailors' Home this (Tuesday) evening.

The Pacific Mail steamer City of Sydney,

We note by a London telegram in Indian papers that the P. & O. steamer Aranda was discharging at Southampton on the 5th September.

The Agents (Messrs. Adamson, Bell & Co.)

London, left Singapore for this port on Sunday.

According to the return of the Curator of the City Hall, 200 of the 2,000 Europeans and 2,015 Chinese visited that institution during the week ended 24th September.

Kailash says that His Majesty the Emperor has nominated Vice-Consul Fehndel, hitherto administrator of the German consulate at Amoy, to be Imperial German Consul at Amoy.

As was anticipated, the September settlements in the share market have not passed off altogether satisfactorily, but the difficulties were not so serious as yesterday's difficulties were consequently so serious.

We understand that no arrangements for the Acting Colonial Secretaryship will be made at present, nor in all probability until the arrival of the Hon. A. Lister, a week hence. The work will in the meantime be carried on by the Departmental staff.

Yesterday at the Police Court before Mr.
Robinson, a contractor named Tang Yee Chai, 20, of the 2nd street, was charged with impersonating a blasting stone above Plant street, and whereby large pieces of stone were projected on to the high road to the danger of passers-by.

Among the details of the great strike in London we find the Kenwood with 4,000 tons of cargo rendered in a week unloaded 200 tons out of 4,000; the Aberdeen took a week to discharge 180 out of 5,000 tons, the Clyde only worked 100 tons in ten days.

To the Singapore version of the Reuters' telegram announcing that a stringent convention has been signed in London between England and Italy for the suppression of the slave trade and the treatment of slaves as pirates there is the following addition:—"The Mediterranean is alone exempted from the operation of the convention."

According to the Times the scientific expedition of Colonel Pavlov to Tibet has been stopped the business of his predecessor, General Prejevalsky, is not in force. The Chinese gave the expedition free passage across the frontier, but have arrested its progress in Kueilin.

In the Guardian of the 14th August there is a notice of the marriage, which took place at St.
Paul's, of the Hon. Mrs. E. A. Lister, daughter of North Clifton to Francis Emily, daughter of Captain Montagu Burrows, Chevalier of Modern Italy. Bishop and Mrs. Scott

The report on the trade of 1888 by the British

The Straits Independent says that the opinion expressed in the Colony, which has resulted in the Government offering a very high reward for the discovery of the guilty parties, is carried on. The saunders regularly report the latest and latest of the Chinese, which which also have been below the Farmer's rates.
The injury to the latter and to the revenue is obvious enough. The smugglers go to work in such a sly and crafty manner as to baffles detection so far.

The following "satellite" is from the Pall Mall Gazette:—"A sudden demand for bronze-coloured hair pencils has been made in Paris just now. But as the demand must produce or create the supply, an enterprising merchant in capillary wares sent to China while the craze was still young, and the result is that of the craze is now being met in the most direct and surest manner, and the humblest retailer can now save and be happy that his is a genuine bronze-coloured hair pencil, which is in great demand in China."

The Delit Current says that emigration from the Delit Current, which has resulted in the Government offering a very high reward

NOW ON SALE.
ENGLISH AND CHINESE
 WITH THE PUNY AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.
 An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at Daily Press Office, Hongkong.
 For comprehensive and practical service this Dictionary is unrivalled. All the words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, and in scientific and technical terms, which the foreign relations have imposed upon them, are given in Chinese. Book and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming a valuable and most accurate reference work for students of Chinese and English. Both the Chinese and English text correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a compactness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and recent spaces which have hitherto characterized Chinese publications.
 To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following terms are submitted for consideration:
 "Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, several of the latest Chinese and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different words which have no general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto published.
 For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which they are in contact, and is perfectly accurate.
 To parties residing in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasionally.
 It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.
 4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price, $20.
 A Large REDUCTION IN PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies.
